New Haven Sep 3rd 1865

Dear Brother.

Our Sisters left yesterday for Southington. expecting to visit Farmington & Hartford during their absence of some two or three weeks. Sister E is as usual in feeble health & Sister S's health has somewhat improved — she had an ill turn last week & really looked as if she was on the verge of the grave — It continued only one or two days. & she is now quite smart. She is exceedingly incautious in eating fruit. & my caution to her on the subject greatly troubles sister E.

Nancy's health is quite feeble this summer, & our company for the last six weeks, has been rather a trial to her. but her health now is rather better than heretofore — Arthur under the strictest diet. has been tolerably well — & is now overflowing with buoyancy — Has a vast amount of steam to work off. Caroline has suffered continually (many days). with headache We do not know what to do with her. Louise is with us & is well. I think she is to be married to Mr [illegible] of Hartford

My own health has been good.

My friend E. W. Bull (the good Samaritan of Hartford) mentioned to me in the spring that his son expected to visit Germany for the purpose of studying Chemistry. & enquired of me whether you would be willing to give him letters to any of your acquaintances there. — I have just rec^d a letter from him of which I send a copy viz.

"My son Buckland W. Bull — will probably leave me in about (5). (6) weeks for a two years residence in Germany." &c — I will enclose the letter & if you can give him some letters you will do me a special favor. as Mr B. has ever been to me a particularly good friend. —

One of our good Methodists asked of me a loan of your side of the Olin Controversy & said that in their papers only O's statements were inserted & from their tone he thought there must be something on the other side.

I know Buckland Bull very well & have known him since he was a little boy. You may depend entirely upon his father's statements. Please send the letters to me if you please & oblige

P.S. Sister E was married & since that time she has not written to you
